THE MEMPHIS MINISTERS are on a crusade against Emma Abbott. One Episcopal minister publicly thanked Abbott's tenor, Montegrippo-who isn't much of a tenor, by the way-for having sang in his choir, and several of his fellow-ministers came down on him like a wolf on the fold. He stood by the thanks, however, and the preachers included Abbott, the opera, theatres, and pretty much everything else in that line, and opened the battle vigorously. Poor little Emma! Sorrowing little widow! Nice little woman! Once a choir singer herself! How many times have the preachers pounced upon her! And how much less cause they have for it than in the cases of dozens of others who remain unas saulted! We are not defending all the women of the stage, but if their censors wish to select frightful examples, Miss Abbott is about the last they should fall upon. What's the matter with Emma? Oh, she's all right !

UP TO DATE the street-car conductors do not announce the names of streets and they permit their cars to stop wherever hailed. It seems a little strange that it requires two or three or four or five weeks for street railway officials to make up their minds to issue simple orders to their conductors and drivers and enforce their obedience. It doesn't cost anything, it involves no policy of government, it jeopardizes no charter rights, it does nothing but accommodate passengers and protect horses from suffering, and vet it is not done.

WE ARE APPRISED by the dispatches that a German vessel has fired on an American vessel down in the neighborhood of Madagascar and knocked off one CONGRESSMEN can't help being politicians. The House subcommittee of the Foreign Affairs Committee has a joint resolution under consideration on the Samoan difficulty and the word German or Germany does not occur anywhere in it. "Certain European powers," however, is used, and it reads a good deal like an anonymous communication. Possibly Congress does not know yet that Germany and England are the "certain European powers." What Congress needs is a telephone to Bismarck's private residence so it can call him a hog and a liar, and a scoundrel, and apply other parliamentary epithets with some degree of personal security.

REPUBLICAN EXTRAVAGANCE is coming to the front again. The shirts Mr. Harrison is to wear in March, his Inaugural shirts, so to speak, were billed to him at $150 per dozen and no discount for cash. We will wager his grandfather's shirts didn't cost that much.

WE ARE NOW engaged in two great national struggles, to wit, one with a Samoan protocol and one with a Canadian modus vicendi. Lord help us if "the britchin' breaks!"

Bismarck has Money in It,

The German Government, says a Philadelphia Press correspondent, so far as Samoa is concerned, is synonymous with the German Commercial Company, to which Biamarck is a stockholder. This concern, according to Mr. Sewall, rules the German Consul. It has secured possession of a large part of the Samoan Islands, and this by illightimate means. Biamarck has a selfah reason therefore in actions as he has concerning Samoa. There is acting as he has concerning Samos. There is no question that Congress will uphold the Ad-ministration in the most vigorous action on CRITICULAR.

A friend of the senior Senator from Kentucky talls this story:

Not long ago Senator Beck went out to visit his son who lives on a ranch in Minuesota. The nearest railway station was twenty miles from the place and he had great difficulty in finding a conveyance He announced himself o several persons as James B. Beck, the United States Senator, but no person seemed mpressed by ft and money was no object to cart-owners. At last he struck an old fellow who had horses and a wagon, but who, like all the others, was not inclined to let them go. The Senator offered him $10, and finally $30, but it was no use "It's very hard," he said, "I have not seen my son for a long time. He lives only twenty miles from here and I cannot get there." "What is your son's name?"! asked the old "Jim Beck," was the reply.

"Great Lord!" exclaimed the old man.

"Are you Jim Beck's father ?" "Yes, sir, I am."

"Well, certainly, you can have the team. I know Jim Beck, and I'll do anything for his daddy. The Senator drove away rather disgusted with his own fame as a statesman, but very proud of being trusted because he was the "daddy" of Jim. "Danfel," remarked the President this morn ing as he pulled his necktie around and buttoned his vest up to the top button. "Yes, sire," responded Daniel. "Did you notice by the papers that Harrison paid $150 a dozen for the shirts he is to wear during the Inauguration ceremonies  "What, sire?" exclaimed Daniel, starting up with an intensity of emotion which split his paper collar down the back. "Harrison paid $12.50 a piece for his shirts.

Daniel," repeated the President in tones of "Great Casar, sire," continued Daniel, "and you only paid 75 cents—"

"Sh! sh! Daniel," whispered the President cautiously: "mine were unlaundried, and, besides, Daniel, we were inaugurating a Democratic era of retrenchment and reform." "Retrenchment and reform be -."

"Stop, Daniel," commanded the President peremptorily, and Daniel threw his paper colfar into the waste basket and went out in the back yard for a few moments of solitude.

EARLY MORNING NEWS.

An Earthquake in Colorado. Advices from Ronett, Col., state that section of the State has been treated to a genuine earthquake. The shocks commenced on the afternoon of the 15th inst., and at 4 o'clock there were violent ones which rocked small buildings, detached large masses of rocks from the mountains and greatly frightened people and animals. The cattle were especially terrorized and ran frantically back and forth. Thunder preceded the shocks but there was no rain. A peculiar phenomenom was observed at Hot Springs below the Government Bridge. The shock was productive of great gushes of water and gas, and accompanying it was a most sulphurous stench that made the people sick and caused the birds to drop to the ground. When the convulsions ceased the water receded and there was a sound like the rushing of a great river. The course of the shock was from the south, northward.

The Judge held that when a first-class price is de-manded and paid, the persons paying that manded and paid, the persons paying that price must have the same accommodations; but when public sentiment demands a separation of passengers, it must be grauted to some extent. While this sentiment prevails the carrier must not be compelled to sacrifice his business in order to combat it. Several suits against newspapers brought in New York by Colonel W. W. Dudley to recover $25,000 from each for publication of and cover $25,000 from each for publication of and comments upon the "blocks of five" letter came up yesterday before Justice Patterson in the Supreme Court. A motion to vacate the order extending the time of the Commercial Advertiser to answer was denied, and decision was reserved on motion to vacate the orders granted to the Times and World for the examination of Colonel Dudley before filing an answer. Mr. Einstein, counsel for the Times, said he would take Colonel Dudley's testimony in Washington, if more convenient to him.

The Financial Union Supreme Secretary Harrington, of the Order of Financial Union, who is located at Paterson, N. BLAINE TO BE PREMIER.

An Intimate Friend of the Statesman Declares That it Will be So. The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says:

The first real and authentic Cabinet news leaked out here to-day when a gentleman very near to Mr. Blaine announced to a few friends that Mr. Blaine has actually been offered the Secretary of State and has signified to Mr. Harrison that he will accept,
"This is authentic," the "gentleman told his club friends, "I am able to state it as a fact, and two places are now settled; Mr. Blaine will be Mr. Harri-son's Secretary of State, and Mr. Wana-maker, who is a close friend of Mr. Blaine, his Postmaster-General, not Sec-Blaine, his Postmaster-General, not Secretary of the Navy, as the new-spapers have it. The Treasury will go West, and Mr. Harrison has urged Senator Allison to accept it, but if he declines, some other Western man will be found. "Nothing else is settled and it is my belief that no other person will be decided until Mr. Blaine and Mr. Harrison have either met to consult or have fully interchanged ideas on the College. interchanged ideas on the Cabinet ques-tion by letter. Now that Mr. Binine has decided to accept the State Department, naturally Harrison will consult him as to the other members who are to serve under him."

Efficacions Prayer. The story the other day about the plous little boy who tried to walk on the water in the bath tub recalls another of an equally pious little girl. She was 8 years old and lived in the country. She had started one day rather late for school with another little girl about herown age. On their way they caught a glimpse of a clock dial through an open door; it lacked five minutes of 9.

"Oh, dear!" exclaimed the plous little girl, "It's five minutes to 9, and we will be late to school."

"I'm afraid we will."
"Jennie," said the pious little girl, impressively, "I'll tell you what we must do; we'll kneel right down here and pray that we won't be late."
"H'm!" said the olher, "I guess we'd better skin right along and pray as we go!"

O. P. Maccille, Esq. Dear Str.—It gives me great pleasure to state that I was entirely relieved of Muschiar Rheumatism of eige months' standing by the free use of your Strontia Water. I suffered much pain and inability to use my arms. I tried a number of remedies without effect. Noticing the excellent results in Dr. Chancellor's case, and having always a high opinion of the water, I used it, with the above result, and have had no return of the Rheumatism. BALTIMORE, May 11, 1887.

Dear Sir; Your Strontia Water has certainly done me a great deal of good. For several years I suffered painful attacks of Rheumanie Gout, for the cure of which I was induced to visit the principal springs and water cures of Europe, as well as many in this country, but without any positive relief. I have received more benefit from armains, strontic Water than from all other sources, and I must regard it as a very valuable remedial agent. As a table water and food solvent it is unsurpassed, and especially valuable in many forms of Dyspepsia.

Very truly yours.
